Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aufranc, treasured residents of Dearborn, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of their Sixty-fifth Wedding Anniversary on May 5, 2005; and

Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on May 5, 1940, Clarence Aufranc and Helen Durham began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony at the First Baptist Church of Dearborn; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband, Mr. Aufranc dutifully served his country in the United States Army during World War II and provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones as a self employed lumber and hardware salesman, insurance agent, and co-owner of a funeral home, while Mrs. Aufranc enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself as a funeral home assistant and employee of JCPenney; and

Whereas, Clarence and Helen Aufranc attribute their sixty-five years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to follow which include their four children, Dan, Pam, Jim (deceased), and Peggy (deceased); and their six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, Clarence and Helen Aufranc have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Clarence and Helen Aufranc upon the glorious celebration of their Sixty-fifth Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them much peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and
